Truman Abandons 4 Billion Tax Boost

Outlines Plan To Combat Recession

Washington, July 11—(AP)—President Truman today abandoned his oft-repeated demand for a $4,000,000,000 tax boost. Instead he called for an 11-point program to combat the recession and produce a stable, "abundant" economy.

The president also laid down a temporary policy of deficit financing (operating in the red) by refusing to permit slashes in federal spending on foreign aid, defense or social services.

In a message the president sent to congress along with the mid-year report of his council of economic advisers, the two key sentences were these:

No Tax Increases

"No major increases in taxes should be undertaken at this time."

"We cannot expect to achieve a budget surplus in a declining national economy."

Mr. Truman was cautiously cheerful. He emphasized that while there has been a "moderate downward trend" in business, there are no signs indicating a repetition of the black economic picture of the 1930's.

"The United States economy is the strongest and most productive the world has ever known," Mr. Truman said. "We can achieve within a few years a national output well over 300 billion dollars (a fifth higher than today's status) xxx."

The White House announced that Mr. Truman will carry his economic ideas to the nation by radio Wednesday night, July 13. His address will go over all four major networks and on television at 8:30 p.m. (CST).

Makes Decision

Press Secretary Charles G. Ross told newsmen that Mr. Truman made his decision to make a frank talk to the nation a few hours after he sent his report to congress.

Mr. Truman's legislative prescription included repeal of the tax on the transportation of goods, increases in estate and gift taxes, and a liberalization of some corporation tax law.

Most of his other proposals had a familiar ring. They included public works planning for the future, as preparedness for a possible darkening of the economic picture; also, the Brannan farm plan; expansion of social security and jobless pay, and extended GI benefits.

Scraped Inflation Curbs

Scrapped were Mr. Truman's old demands for inflation controls, such as standby powers to curb prices and wages. But he struck out at congress for not granting these powers during the recent boom, and for not cutting income taxes. This failure, he said, was now having its adverse effect.

From Capitol Hill and New York's financial district, the reaction to Mr. Truman's message was favorable in large part—particularly over his dropping of a tax increase. But there was some grumbling that the message still smacked too much of a "welfare state."

Labor unions found something to cheer about in Mr. Truman's declaration that the purchasing power of workers must be held at high levels, and that while prices should come down, they should not be cut at the expense of lower paychecks.

Mr. Truman said present wage rates "should at least be maintained."

Most lawmakers, who have been cool all along to Mr. Truman's requests for a tax boost last January and a month ago, were happy to have him depart from that stand.

Bull With Bees In Bonnet Disrupts Wedding Party

Rome, July 11—(AP)—You've heard of the bull in the china shop. This is about a bull in the dining room.

There was a marriage at a farm near Naples the other day, and the guests were gathered at the festive table. Outdoors, five-year-old Francesco Minniti, all dolled up in a red suit for the occasion, played in a field. A bull spotted him.

Francesco fled into a nearby automobile. The bull charged, missed, and hit a beehive, the bees got mad and chased the bull. The bull ran into the house, and into the dining room. The guests jumped out of the windows and into a water-filled ditch. The bull followed. The cool water calmed him down. Nobody was hurt.

REDS BANNED FROM UNION

Scarborough, Eng. July 11—(AP)—Communists were banned today from holding office in Britain's largest trade union, the Transport and General Workers' union.

Arthur Deakin, general secretary, declined to estimate how many of the trade union's 1,323,679 registered members are communists.

CIO Says Corporations Can Afford Wage Hike

Washington, July 11—(AP)—The CIO today received a report from economist Robert R. Nathan asserting that "corporations as a whole can afford substantial wage increases."

The report was made at a big luncheon for newspaper and radio correspondents, with labor and management leaders in the audience.

Nathan, former War Production Board adviser, is now a private economist and was retained by the CIO to make the report.

Nathan made a similar report for the CIO two years ago which became an important factor in the labor organization's bid for a post-war wage increase.

This time Nathan said that four-

Closed Hearings Of AEC Begin As Public Probe Ends

Washington, July 11—(AP)—The public inquiry into handling of the nation's atomic program ended today—at least temporarily—with no sign of the fiery dramas with which it opened more than six weeks ago.

But congressional investigators weighing charges of "incredible mismanagement" leveled against David E. Lilienthal by Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) still have more work ahead. They will begin tomorrow a closed door hearing into security matters.

Lilienthal, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, completed his rebuttal of Hickenlooper's original evidence today. He presented three witnesses, who dealt with technical and legal matters.

Other testimony came from W. W. Waymack, Lilienthal's colleague on the commission until last spring. He did not appear in person, but sent a telegram to Senator McMahon (D-Conn.), chairman of the Senate House committee conducting the inquiry.

Senate Committee Votes To Cut 10% Off Marshall Plan

Washington, July 11—(AP)—The senate appropriations committee voted today to slash 10 per cent off today's funds asked for the Marshall plan.

And it tied up $50,000,000 of what was left in order to cut Spain in on the European recovery plan program if the administration sees fit.

The recovery program would get $3,778,380,000. President Truman had asked $4,198,200,000. A committee-man said one group fought to chop off 19 per cent.

Chairman McKellar (D-Tenn.) estimated that the committee cut a total of $748,820,000 off President Truman's budget estimates for actual appropriations in foreign spending, which includes the Marshall plan.

The members gave formal approval in a bitter closed-door session to reducing foreign spending in general.

Alleged Lonely Hearts Killer Says Police Starved Him

New York, July 11—(AP)—Raymond Fernandez, 34, alleged lonely hearts killer, testified today he was kept without food and sleep so long after his arrest in Michigan that "I didn't know whether I was coming or going."

He also said he falsely took the blame for three killings because he loved his co-defendant, Mrs. Martha Beck, 29.

Fernandez was called as a witness in the defense fight to prove that statements he and Mrs. Beck allegedly made in Michigan were obtained under duress and are inadmissible as evidence.

The two are on trial on first-degree murder charges in the blood-greasy strangulation slaying of Mrs. Janet Fay, 66, Albany, N. Y., widow last Jan. 4 at Valley Stream, N. Y. They were first arrested in Michigan on charges of killing Mrs. Delphine Downing and her infant daughter.

CLOSING OUT

Springfield, Ill., July 11—(AP)—The State Insurance department said today checks totaling $720,000 have been mailed 10,542 claimants against Chicago Lloyds, Automobile Casualty Insurance writers. The department said the checks represented the first distribution of assets of the company, now in the process of liquidation.

Czechs Threaten To Stop Charities To Catholic Church

Prague, Czechoslovakia, July 11—(AP)—The communist government tonight made a veiled threat to cut Catholic charities off without state funds unless the bishops surrender in the church-state fight.

The threat was in an article about Charitas, a Catholic charitable organization, which was distributed by the official news agency for all newspapers to publish.

"It is up to all the faithful to realize," the article said, "that the current church-state struggle—which is really a political struggle dictated by foreign reaction and only waged under the cloak of religion—also seriously endangers the peaceful activities of the charity."

"There is a chance for improvement of the charity's activities if the situation is correctly reviewed."

Tito Will Close Yugo Frontiers To Greek Communists

Athens, Greece, July 11—(AP)—The announcement by Marshal Tito that he is gradually closing Yugoslavia's frontiers to the Greek communist guerrillas was seen by observers here today as another sign of an important change in policy.

Tito told a crowd Sunday he was closing the frontier to "safeguard the lives of our workmen" near the border.

He made the speech a week after Yugoslavia, in a note to Secretary General Trygve Lie of the United Nations, had indicated willingness to seek a settlement with Greece.

Official Yugoslav comment on the note said good will relations depended on Greece and accused Greece of border "provocations."

Observers have reported a lessening of Yugoslav aid to the communist guerrillas for several months as Tito's quarrel with the communists grew more intense.

Tells Housewives That Meat Prices Won't Drop Soon

Detroit, July 11—(AP)—Housewives don't look for any drop in meat prices soon.

That's the warning from Dr. L. M. Hurt, president of the American Veterinary Medical Association.

The big freeze in the west last winter and overselling of livestock breeding stock in recent years will likely keep meat prices at fairly high levels, Dr. Hurt told the organization's annual convention here today.

"We were two and one-half percent low on beef production in this country last year, and five per cent short on all livestock," he reported. "This picture does not indicate any early or substantial decline in meat prices."

The veterinarians chose W. M. Coffee of La Center, Ky., as president-elect. He will take office in July, 1950.

Vice-presidents chosen include fifth, A. E. Bott, East St. Louis, Ill.

GOP Committee To Meet Solons Over Scott Ouster

Washington, July 11—(AP)—A small group of Republican National committee men will meet with party congressional leaders tomorrow to discuss a reported demand for the ouster of National Chairman Hugh D. Scott, Jr.

While Scott showed no apparent worry over the new move, Republican leaders said they would not be surprised if a group of committee men dissatisfied with his leadership forced a meeting which might vote him out.

An unsuccessful effort was made to unseat Scott, a Pennsylvania representative, at a national committee meeting in Omaha last January. It failed, 54 to 50. The new effort originated at a secret session in Pittsburgh on Saturday.

U.S. Peace Talks Fail; Murray To Call Steel Strike

Seven Russian Soldiers Maintain 'Slow-Down Blockade' Of Berlin

Berlin, July 11—(AP)—Seven bored Russian soldiers kept a stranglehold tonight on the only truck supply route still open from western Germany to Berlin.

This tiny Soviet guard detachment at Helmsdorf, frontier post on the main highway to Berlin, limited passage of trucks to four an hour—96 a day. Before the unexplained "slow-down blockade" was clamped down daily traffic averaged about 300 Berlin-bound trucks at Helmsdorf.

A strong smell of rotting fish, fruit and vegetables hung over the checkpoint as more than 100 food-laden trucks lined up under the hot sun waiting their turns to pass. Many had been turned back from other Soviet zone crossing points closed to Berlin-bound trucks since Friday. Only at Helmsdorf was restricted truck traffic permitted by the Russians.

A British protest that the truck curb violated the four-power agreement on lifting the blockade went unanswered tonight. Some allied officials regarded the Soviet slow-down as a pressure move for western acceptance of Russian proposals for more interzonal trade and a higher value for the lowly east mark.

Trucks headed for other points in Soviet zone outside western Berlin were waved on through with quick inspections. German buses and private passenger cars moved freely at all times.

The slowdown affected mainly shipments of fish, fruit and vegetables—all unrationed foods which west Berliners have been buying in large amounts.

But it did not seriously threaten the city's supplies. The airlift roared on, bringing about 8,000 tons of food and fuel daily to Berlin's western sectors. Airlift authorities announced tonight 6,177 tons had been flown to Berlin in the last 24 hours, a total below average because of early morning fog.

Train and barge traffic from western Germany was about back to normal.

British military government sources said the western powers would take strong action against the blockade. The new harassment of Berlin's supply lines produced a tense atmosphere for tomorrow's meeting of the four military commanders of divided Berlin.

Murray, who has made demands for an unspecified wage increase and pensions benefits, said he will recommend a nation-wide strike when his union's policy committee meets in Pittsburgh tomorrow.

Followed By 500,000

The CIO chief said the first 500,000 workers would walk out at midnight Friday and at midnight Saturday, depending upon contract dates. They would be followed by another estimated 500,000 more union workers as their contracts expire between July 16 and next October.

The 6-foot-7-inch Ching immediately moved to bring about presidential intervention.

He told reporters he was reporting at once to the White House and the representatives of U.S. Steel corporation and five other major steel producers were completely deadlocked and that mediation efforts had been exhausted.

Murray said "if no agreement is arrived at between now and Saturday," he would recommend "that our people should discontinue work until a satisfactory contract is reached."

John A. Stephens, vice president of U.S. Steel corporation in charge of industrial relations, said Murray is insisting on a $130 monthly pension for his 1,000,000 United Steelworkers.

All Issues Deadlocked

Murray said the deadlock involved all of the issues in dispute. They include an unspecified wage demand and group insurance as well as pensions.

But Stephens said pensions were Murray's No. 1 demand. And he challenged the union's right to discuss that issue now.

Stephens insisted that the steel corporation last year had agreed to a 131 cent hourly wage increase for Murray in exchange for a commitment from Murray that pensions would not be brought up before the contract expires next April. It is a two-year contract.

On July 6, U.S. Steel President Benjamin F. Fairless said that a fourth round wage increase was not justified.

Despite that statement, Stephens said tonight, "we would continue to bargain on insurance and respond in detail on our reason for giving the response on wages which we did."

Congress Agrees On 'No Tax Hike' In Truman Program

Washington, July 11—(AP)—Congress quickly agreed today with President Truman on one thing—no $4,000,000,000 tax increase is not in order—and gave the rest of his economic message a careful going-over.

Administration leaders got their heads together with Mr. Truman at once on his program designed to help get the country back on the upward trend.

Emerging from the White House, House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) said he expected passage of a minimum wage increase, a new farm bill, and extension of the reciprocal trade agreement act.

Rayburn said he expected the House to pass expansion of social security benefits but senate Democratic leader Lucas said it was somewhat doubtful there would be time to complete action this session.

Rayburn observed that repeal of the freight tax on goods would be popular.

The speaker foresaw complications for the proposed increase of unemployment compensation. He would not attempt to estimate the prospects for raising estate and gift taxes.

WEATHER

The Norbury Sanatorium, cooperative observer for the U.S. Weather Bureau, yesterday reported the temperatures for Monday as follows: High, 86; low, 61; and at 6 p.m., 82.

Forecast for Illinois—Generally fair and pleasant today.

Jap Colonel Says Tokyo Rose Show Was Effective

San Francisco, July 11—(AP)—A Japanese colonel who headed a propaganda section during the war, testified today that a Tokyo Rose program was effective.

He was a government witness, in the treason trial of Mrs. Iva Toguri D'Aquino, 33, Los Angeles-born. She is charged with Broadcasting Japanese propaganda.

The witness was Shigetatsu Tsuneishi, 40, commander of the Bunka prison camp for allied broadcasters. Tsuneishi, a lieutenant colonel in the Imperial army, testified that in the spring of 1944 he met the "Zero Hour" radio cast, on which Mrs. D'Aquino appeared in Tokyo Rose roles.

She was there, he said, at a noon luncheon. He said "I informed them that the progress of the war was not too satisfactory, but that the Zero Hour programs were doing well. I asked all concerned to put their best efforts toward continuing this important work."

The Republican attacks drew sharp rebukes in the House today and Rep. Wood (D-Ga.), chairman of the un-American Activities committee, called the investigation talk "just a political move."

Other committee members withheld comment publicly, but there was little doubt that they would squelch any formal move for an inquiry by their group if Nixon and Velde make one at tomorrow's committee session.

World Council Of Churches Protests Red Interference

Chichester, England, July 11—(AP)—The World Council of Churches today set up a committee of nine to draft protests against interference with religious liberty.

The complaint will hit anti-church pressures in the Soviet satellite states a council spokesman said.

The central committee of the world council, which came into being at Amsterdam last summer as the representative of 150 protestant and orthodox groups in 44 nations, is conferring on church problems. The church-state struggle in east Europe tops the agenda.

The drafting committee is headed by the bishop of Chichester, Dr. George Kennedy Bell, who yesterday called on the council to fearlessly voice its protests against "flagrant violations of Christian principles" by communism.

He urged a stronger condemnation than came out of the Amsterdam assembly which criticized "both communism and laissez-faire capitalism."

BIGGEST LOAD EVER

Cleveland, July 11—(AP)—Combined shipments of ore, coal and grain on the Great Lakes for the season to July 1 exceeded any previous similar period in history by nearly 400,000 tons, the Lake Carriers' Association said today.

Both agencies said that as far as they are concerned the money belongs to him.

Savannah, Ga., July 11—(AP)—After 13 years, Albert Campbell picked behind the mirror of an old dresser he bought at a second hand sale.

He found nineteen $100 bills.

Campbell reported his find to the county police, who in turn reported to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Both agencies said that as far as they are concerned the money belongs to him.

Summary Of Truman's Economic Report

Washington, July 11—(AP)—Here is a summary of President Truman's economic views and recommendations for action given to congress today in his midyear economic report:

Taxes—No major increases now; raise estate and gift tax rates; abandon transportation tax on goods; liberalize carry-over of losses in taxing corporations.

Economy—Don't cut essentials. A temporary deficit is preferable. A budget surplus can't be expected in a declining economy.

Unemployment—Not at dangerous levels. All-out emergency measures not required. Reverse the trend by positive private and public action.

Reversing the trend—Business should lower prices where possible, but not cut wages to do so. Don't accept the idea of a depression.

Work and plan for prosperity. Congress should do this:

1. Lengthen repayment time on RFC loans to business.
2. Study investment and development needed to expand the economy; uncovering capacity shortages to prevent bottlenecks when business activity is climbing again.
3. Improve farm price supports. The administration is back of a Brannan plan to let prices drop and subsidize farmers against loss instead of keeping up prices by buying surpluses and holding them off the consumer market.
4. Raise the wage minimum to at least 75 cents an hour. It now is 40.
5. Broaden unemployment compensation, covering more industries, raising benefits, lengthening period of idleness covered. Provide states money so they can act quickly.

6. Stretch the veterans' jobless pay program—$20 a week for a maximum of 52 weeks—to July 25, 1950.
7. Raise social security benefits; extend them to more persons; increase direct aid grants. Let payroll taxes go up to 13 per cent Jan. 1 to permit higher old age pensions.
8. Speed up advance planning of public works and acquire sites in case of future need. No immediate, sweeping expansion is required now.
9. Help develop world's backward areas with technical aid, and encourage foreign investment.
10. Pass the reciprocal trade agreements legislation now pending.

The goal—an annual output of 600,000,000 a service well above $300,000,000,000 in a few years; an increase of about 20 per cent.

Budget balance—He pledged every effort to restore a balance at the earliest possible time. He blamed the present deficit on last year's tax cuts by the Republican congress. Failure to give him anti-inflation powers he sought helped bring about the present dangers, he said.

The big issue—Shall we step backward to "lower levels of education, health and housing, international and domestic security, and national development?"—or move forward toward an economy "as strong and productive as our resources; and skill permit, and adopt the programs which are consistent with that kind of economy and necessary for its attainment?"

His decision—"I propose that we follow the latter course."

SOUTH, NATION'S POOREST AREA, NEEDS OVERHAUL OF ECONOMY

A group of southerners recommends that private firms pour about $5,000,000,000 in capital into the South to quicken its sluggish economic bloodstream.

The group, a committee reporting for the National Planning Association, says the South must have an investment of that size if it is ever to catch up with the rest of the nation.

What would the money be used for? To bring more industry into the region and to step up the productivity and value of its agriculture. Higher per capita wealth and income is the prime need, says the committee.

Many years ago the late President Roosevelt dubbed the South "the nation's No. 1 economic problem." The sensitive South didn't like being singled out as a problem child.

But the issuance of this new report, written by two economists of Duke University in North Carolina on behalf of a representative group of southern leaders, is proof that southerners themselves are indeed aware of their region's shortcomings.

One could marshal a ponderous array of figures to document the South's backwardness, but it hardly seems necessary. The area unquestionably is the nation's poorest.

Yet the region represents a paradox. For, as the committee says, it has tremendous undeveloped natural resources, vast untapped markets in its growing cities, and ample manpower supplies. The ingredients, in other words, of a healthy, balanced economy.

A review of the South's whole history would be required to explain how the region got into this strange fix. But one factor that stands out above all was its long reliance on cotton as the source of its wealth and income.

A changing, warring world swept away much of the once rich market for this crop and thereby kicked the chief prop from under the South.

Painfully the region has learned that it must diversify or die. And slowly it has begun to put its faith in a wider range of farm products and in struggling young industries.

The southerners' report is at once an expression of that faith and a cry for help. Impressive is the fact that the appeal is directed mainly to private business. Few are the pleas these days that are not carried straight to Washington.

Not that the southerners don't want some government aid. They do, for farm research, soil conservation to repair the ravages of a one-crop economy, and loans to farmers to help them become more efficient producers.

The committee believes that if the South can be helped to a higher income plane, it will then have the strength to generate its own future economic growth.

This looks like a gamble worth taking. This country operates nowadays on the notion that economic backwardness anywhere in the world is a drag on prosperity and a danger to peace. Committed to aiding many areas beyond our borders, we would appear extremely foolish were we to ignore the lag in the South.

BOSOM BUDDIES—Jumbo, 5-year-old Saint Bernard, and Mabel, 5-week-old fawn, have become bosom buddies. Mabel's mother had wandered and abandoned her on a farm near Stockton, N. But Jumbo got so lonesome for his new girl friend that Mabel was finally brought home again to keep him company.

The Things People Will Do For Money

By HAL BOYLE

New York.—(P)—Jimmy never can forget how old man Jaspers conned him. He told me about it as we sat in his new apartment with his latest wife, Rosabelle.

"I went to work for him during the war," said Jimmy. "He owned a big independent soft drink business—cherry, grape, lemon, ginger ale—anything that fizzed. And he shipped to five states."

"How did Mr. Jaspers ever get such a big business, honey?" asked his wife.

"I told you a dozen times!" said Jimmy. "He got it the same way you got me—he stole it! Go mix us a drink."

Rosabelle tripped out to the kitchen, looking pleased at this version of their marriage.

"Well, anyway," said her husband, "good men were hard to get about then, and it didn't take this old joker long to see I knew my way around. So he made me his general manager."

"Then he began having these strokes. They didn't make him gooky. They just kept him in bed. But every day I had to go out to his house after work and tell him what was doing at the plant."

What kind of man was this Jasper, Jimmy?

"Crazy about money. His first wife divorced him after she caught him snuggling with her maid."

It Didn't Bother Her

"And then when his ex-wife fell in love and married another guy with less money, it made old Jaspers mad. Just to spite her he built a $100,000 house over in New Jersey—stingy as he was—and up and married the maid. But it didn't bother his first wife. By then she didn't care if Jaspers ate $1,000 bills for breakfast. She was happy."

Rosabelle came in with the drinks. "What put me in solid with the old geezer," Jimmy went on, "was the way I could scrounge sugar on the black market. We could sell all the pop we could make. The trouble was in getting the sugar. And I found how to get plenty."

"He had no way to check up on me, and for a time I was considering to go into business for myself—none on sale. 'Trud' commented using his plant. I could've cut a few that the Ministry of the Automobile of the boys in, and we could've run and Tractor Industry must take a of a thousand or so cases extra at night and sold them ourselves. But Soviet athletes."

"That night he died. When his joke long to see I knew my way around. So he made me his general manager."

RINGS ON HIS FINGERS

Wearing rings on all 10 fingers and with six feet of hair wound into a stylish bun on the top of his head, Jack Scott is booked as a "suspicious character" in Atlanta, Ga. Checking Scott's pockets, police found, among other items: a bank book showing $9000 on deposit; $200 cash; a label from a package of firecrackers; a green necktie; a wad of chewing gum; several Denver, Colo., streetcar transfers, and a six of spades from a deck of cards.

NEEDLE IN HIS HEART—Five-month-old Dickie Morse had been breathing too heavily for either his or his parents' comfort. They brought him to a Los Angeles hospital for a check-up. An X-ray, right, showed Dickie had a half-inch silver of needle in his heart. A surgeon at the hospital performed the delicate operation, removing the piece of steel from the baby's heart muscle. Doctors say Dickie probably rolled over on a needle carelessly left in his crib. A piece stuck in him and in a few days worked itself to his heart. He's okay now, and all set to go home to San Diego.

It's Not The Heat, It's The Breeze

Miami, Fla.—(P)—Climate can come in through the window. The weather man demonstrated that recently.

A visitor to the weather bureau expressed the opinion that it wasn't the heat, it was the humidity that made the days seem hot.

Grady Norton, chief forecaster, asked: "How do you feel now?" "Fine," said the visitor. "It is cool and comfortable in your office."

Norton closed the window, and the two talked on. The visitor began to fight. He loosened his tie. He mopped his brow.

"How do you feel now?" asked Norton.

"It has gotten a little warm," said the visitor.

"No," said the weather man. "The temperature and humidity are exactly the same as they were a few minutes ago when you felt quite comfortable. What happened?"

"You closed the window," said the visitor.

"Yep," said Norton. "And cut off the breeze."

Rabbit Disrupts Austrian Finance

Vienna—(P)—"Maxi" the rabbit is the cause of many furrowed brows in the Austrian Ministry of Finance. Maxi is in Switzerland. That is just as well. His life expectancy would not be very high if local officials could get their hands on his furry little neck. Maxi was the property of a Swiss lady who died not long ago. In her will, she left 10,000 Swiss Francs to her Austrian relatives, with the strict proviso that each month they send 100 Swiss Francs back to a family in Switzerland which is taking care of Maxi.

So, every month for the next eight or 10 years, the local beneficiaries will ask the Ministry of Finance for official permission to send 100 Swiss Francs back to Switzerland. In this country of strict currency regulations that is the rough equivalent of an American communist asking permission to send a sample atom bomb to friends in Russia.

Plan Air Power For Barges

Rome—(P)—Barges with airplane propellers may soon navigate Italy's northern inland waterways.

In this way it is proposed to make use of the old Venetian canals whose walls built centuries ago, could not resist the wash from conventional under-water screws.

The idea of using air propulsion was presented to the recent inland waterways conference in Padua by Prof. Luigi Sante Darios, who had made a long study of the problems of adapting the ancient waterways to modern navigation needs.

Maintainable Italy has a fair network of canals and navigable waterways, totalling about 1250 miles.

Italian network with central Europe through Switzerland, and connecting a new direct canal from Padua to the industrial port of Venice.

Locarno, Switzerland, could be the connecting point of the Italian canals with the central European network. A group of German and Swiss industrialists is now studying a project which would bring German coal to Italy's great industrial centers in the north by water at low cost. This would contribute to reducing production costs and ease the burden of coal traffic on European railroads.

U. S. Warns Germans Of Red Agents

Berlin—(P)—The American military government radio station in Berlin is now telling 20,000,000 eastern Germans to beware of pro-Soviet snoopers.

The station, RIAS, claims that Germans working for the Soviet secret police had kidnapped many anti-communists in western Berlin and denounced others in Russian-occupied territory.

RIAS recently began broadcasting twice weekly the names, addresses and occupations of alleged Soviet-German agents.

The radio said it obtained most of these names from people who fled the Russian zone for political reasons, but double-checked the information before putting it on the air.

One radio official said many letters from the Russian zone had thanked RIAS for its warnings. He said in several cases these warnings had prevented anti-communists from being duped by the alleged agents.

RIAS is the only American radio station behind the Iron Curtain. The British also have a licensed station in Berlin.

How Kaiser's
exclusive new idea
gave the Migliorisi family
"2 cars" for only '2088

Says Henry J. Kaiser,
Chairman, Kaiser-Frazer Corp.

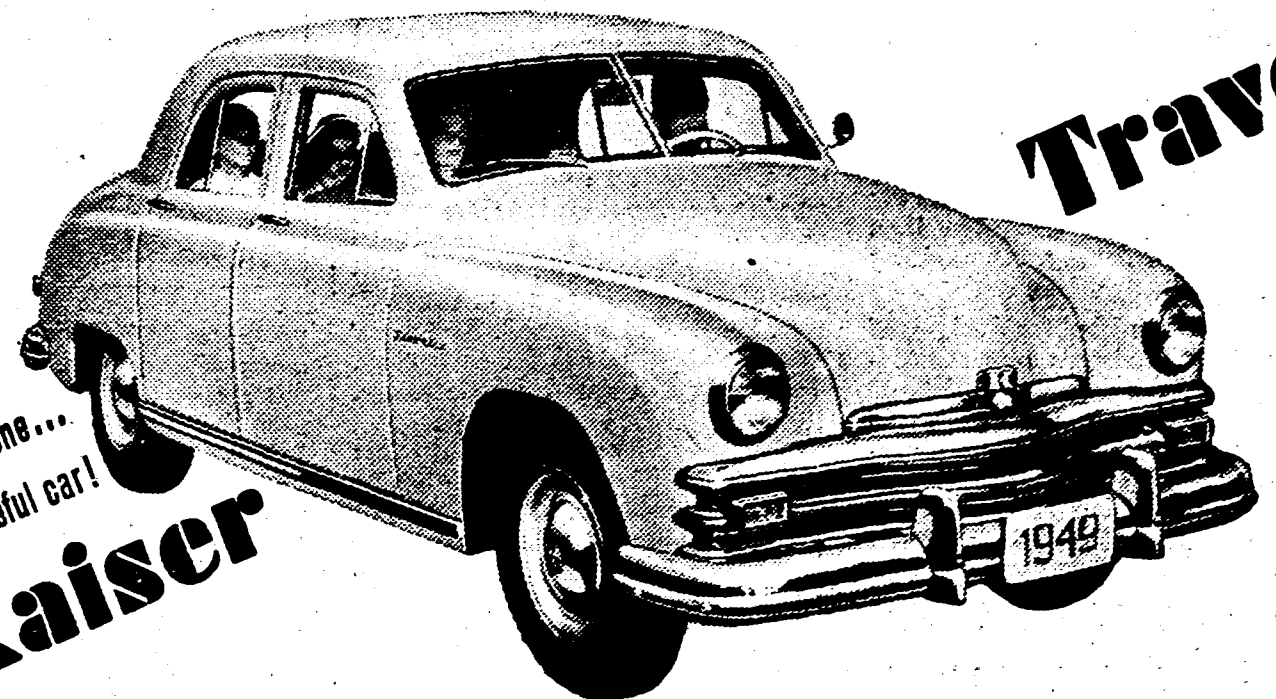

"Our purpose has always been to make the sort of cars the typical American family wants and needs. That's why we designed and built our new Kaiser Traveler. It is the answer to the 2-car problem of busy, thrifty folks who don't like the bother and expense of maintaining two different kinds of cars. I hope you treat your family to the thrilling experience of a Kaiser Traveler demonstration real soon."

Joseph Migliorisi, New York thread salesman, gets his Traveler ready for a 137-mile delivery run. Mr. Migliorisi, known in business as "Mr. Miggie", loads 80 pound cartons into the Traveler's 130 cu. ft. cargo hold, (with room for 3 passengers). The powerful, 7.3-to-1 high compression Kaiser engine saves plenty of gas!

Converting the Migliorisi's Traveler from a luxurious six-passenger sedan to a cargo carrier is a 10-second job. Here, little Vicky, 6, already has the tailboard down, while Frankie, 11, flips up the hatch. Says their father, "I change my Kaiser Traveler into 'shirt sleeves' almost as fast as taking off my own coat!"

Fewer Cows Produce Same Amount Of Milk

New York—(P)—The number of cows in the United States has been declining at the rate of more than a million head a year since 1945, but the supply of milk is more plentiful than ever.

The bovine population now figures out to one milk cow for every six persons. In 1920, there was one for every five people and back in grandpa's time in 1870, one for every four. These figures were compiled from various sources by the American Can Co.

The 24,450,000 U. S. cows now give practically as much milk as did 27,700,000 in 1943. The average cow's yield is now about two and a half tons of milk a year, an increase of 10 per cent over 1945. Farmers and dairymen have culled low producers out of their herds.

The average citizen now consumes about 388 pounds of fluid milk and cream each year, along with some 19 pounds of evaporated milk and about 10 pounds of butter.

New York Stock Market

New York, July 11.—(P)—The stock market greeted the president's mid-year economic message with polite indifference today.

Prices moved sluggishly before and after the president spoke. Few changes exceeded minor fractions and a wide variety of leading issues remained at Friday's closing levels. Gains and losses were thoroughly scrambled.

Business tended to the slow side. Turnover was at the rate of only 650,000 shares or so for the full session.

Soybean Advance

In Commodities

Chicago, July 11.—(P)—A steady run of buying orders, largely based on expectations of a bullish government crop forecast after the market closed, caused a brisk advance in all commodity futures on the Board of Trade today. Traders said the market was featured by a lack of selling pressure.

Widest gains were scored in soybeans, which ran up more than six cents before meeting enough pressure to stem the upturn. All soybean contracts made new seasonal highs, as did all rye. December rye pushed above the $1.50 level.

Receipts were: wheat 909 cars, corn 101, oats 28, rye 13, barley 21, soybeans 18.

$75,000 Damage Result Of Fire At Pittsfield

Pittsfield—Loss estimated unofficially at $75,000 resulted from a fire here Saturday which destroyed the plant of the Midwest Dried Milk Co. and the nearby storage building owned by Carl Jones, distributor for a national oil concern.

The blaze, the cause of which was not determined, was discovered at 4 a. m. in the milk plant and endangered a large section of the city. Persons residing within a radius of a quarter mile of the fire were warned to be ready to move out. Firemen brought the flames under control at noon.

Loss to the milk company building and contents was estimated at $60,000. At least 100 barrels of oil burned in the Jones storage building. Loss there was estimated at $15,000. Three car loads of dried milk were destroyed and a loaded freight car also burned at the Midwest plant. Two storage gallons of gasoline, located 100 feet from the Midwest plant, failed to ignite.

Blackie, Mutt Pup, Falls Into Well; Fished Out, O.K.

Blackie, two months' old "mutt" puppy, put in a damp and dismal half-hour Monday morning when he fell into an unused well located under the back porch of the John Fralc residence, 1042 S. Clay avenue.

Blackie was a Fourth of July present to the two Fralc boys, Richard, 6, and Johnny, 21.

Shortly before 8 a. m. Blackie was playing in the backyard. The family heard something strike the pipe of the pump and then frantic yipping from a wet and frightened puppy.

Mr. Fralc, who is manager of Vick's shoe store, tore out a section of the porch flooring and lowered a trouble light. He found Blackie hocked into a hollowed spot in the well's casing, a few inches above the waterline 30 feet below.

A call for help brought the fire department hook and ladder wagon. After a series of tries, a looped rope was swung around the pup's mid-ribs and up he came, unhurt but still yipping.

Ways to Save

If you were a South American Indian from the upper Sipi River in western Colombia, your "savings" would consist of sun-dried cuca leaves, which you would be most careful to dry. Dried cuca leaves have a market, or "savings" value because when they are chewed they make you almost tireless at work — constantly adding to your strength.

Savings at Jacksonville Savings & Loan Assn. are somewhat like cuca leaves. They constantly add to themselves by earning a profit. And too, they "stand by you" in time of need.

Elks Upset Favored Beardstown Nine 3-1; Local K.C.'s Lose 15-0

Games Tonight
Springfield So. Sixth Street Mer-
vs. Roodhouse Phillips 66 (7:30 p.m.)
Jacksonville Moose vs. Waverly
K. of P. (8:45 p.m.)

The Jacksonville Elks became the first team to upset the apple-cart in the local Invitational tournament when they eliminated the highly favored Critic Feed softballers of Beardstown 3-1 in the second night of play at the Southside park last night.

Bob Kraushaar's fifth inning home run inside the park climaxed the Elks' thrilling victory over Bill Boyer and company from the river town. Jim Atkins, recently acquired Elk twirler, made his first appearance on the slab for the locals and turned in a nifty five hit pitching performance to notch his first win in Jacksonville colors.

Boyer Starts Strong
Bill Boyer, celebrated Beardstown chucker, looked unbeatable in the opening innings against the underdog Elk nine. The husky U. of I. athlete whiffed the first six clubbers he faced and went on to hold the eventual winners hitless for three innings. On the other hand, Atkins started slowly, allowing the Beardstown lead-off man to hit safely. However, he tightened down and fanned the next two batters to keep pace with Boyer.

The Elk twirler seemed to get stronger as the contest progressed until the seventh inning. Nursing a 3-0 lead going into the final frame, he suddenly found himself in hit water with two men on base and one out. A pop fly to second baseman Kraushaar killed off the second Beardstown batter, but the next riverman rifled a double off Atkins offering, scoring the single losing run.

The Elks marked single tallies in the fourth fifth and sixth chapters. They collected three hits off Bill Boyer.

Second Game Proves Rout
The second tussle was a sad exhibition from the Jacksonville fans' viewpoint. A strong Loami Athletic Club bunch turned the heat on the local K. of C. club and bounced them out of further tournament competition to the tune of a 15-0 tempo that forced the game into retirement at the end of the fifth inning.

Jake McGrath—K.C. flinger—had trouble finding the plate from the opening innings and when he was successful the bulky Loami clubbers promptly labled the pellet for extras. The winners rattled the fences for a total of 13 hits in compiling their 15 run score.

Stomderfer—Loami moundsman—was highly successful in repelling the K. C. sluggers efforts, limiting them to a trio of safeties.

Cattleman Told Cleveland Indians Are Not For Sale

Gunnison, Colo., July 11—(P)—The Cleveland Indians aren't for sale, so Dan Thornton, wealthy Colorado cattleman, has dropped his plans to buy the Indians.

Thornton said yesterday he wanted to purchase the club if it was for sale and "the price is right." He added his idea of a "right" price was "about $2,000,000."

Cleveland President Bill Veeck replied he had never heard of Thornton and the Indians weren't on the market.

In that case, Thornton said today, he was giving up his attempt to buy the club for the present.

New Coach Will Change Redskins Into Running Team

Washington, July 11—(P)—Washington's pass-pitching Redskins will become the running Redskins if their new coach has his way.

Still wearing the uniform of a navy rear admiral, John Whelchel took over today as coach of the National football league Redskins.

And the onetime coach of the naval academy scarcely had dropped anchor before he told a news conference that he knows what the Redskins must have: a hard running, fast travelling halfback.

No names occurred to anyone at the moment, although a team named the Redskins has been getting by for several seasons, mostly on the accurate right arm of passer Sammy Baugh.

Oddly, Whelchel thinks the best running halfback the Redskins had last year was Dick Todd. Baugh's fellow Texan and closest friend. The reason that's odd is because Todd weighed only 173, small for the pro leagues, and was a dignified 34 years old last season.

Furthermore, Todd has decided to drop out of pro football.

Although judging from the headlines one would think the collegiate woods were full of jackrabbit halfbacks, Whelchel says the Redskins will bring some of his cowhands along to play ball for him. At least "would be something definitely different. Can you imagine a bandy-legged cattle herder trying to stop a hot grounder at shortstop."

TOURNEY CHART

By Bob Merris

John Maynard kept the Moose baseballers on top of the Ivy league heap with a blistering 13 inning twirling performance at Astoria Sunday afternoon. The two clubs locked horns 4-4 for 13 frames before the Jacksonville clubbers reached the Astoria hurler for a quartet of tallies in the top of the 13th. Farrell Mitchell—Moose centerfielder—parked a home run to aid the local and winning cause. The Moose nine will play another Ivy league contest here next Sunday.

The front-running local baseball club travels to Havana Thursday evening where they'll participate in the first round of the state play-offs. The contest will mark the Moose hitters' second appearance under the stars this season. In their night-baseball debut the Jacksonville boys "whupped" Lefty Tangman—U. of I. twirler—in a 6-4 tussle with the Havana Glass Bars.

Softball fans who have been searching for something better in Illinois competition can cease their search. We've witnessed clashes between diamond gladiators in the cold country, in the hot country and where the grass is called "tumbleweed," but never have we seen two more red-hot tussles than were displayed at the Southside park Sunday night.

Myers Bros.—favorites to win the Recreation Club sponsored 16-team Invitational tourney which is now in the process of being disputed—had just one heck of a time turning back the determined bid of a Little Scott county club playing under the name of Winchester V.F.W. And, in the nightcap, the House of Clay—another local team—made things plenty hot for the Carrollton K. of C. aggregation before dropping a 4-3, 9 inning decision.

Now we've heard everything—A Colorado rancher wants to buy the Cleveland Indians. Although, Bill Veeck denies 'tis so, we'd like to think that maybe, prexy William would do well to hook up with the cowpoke. After viewing some of the other promotion schemes that he's made pay off at Cleveland, we wouldn't be a bit surprised to see a bronc busting exhibition between games some Sunday.

Maybe the wealthy ranch owner will bring some of his cowhands along to play ball for him. At least "would be something definitely different. Can you imagine a bandy-legged cattle herder trying to stop a hot grounder at shortstop."

John Campbell, our Ivy League "foreign correspondent," reports that Carroll Lowe has plucked the coaching plumb at Waverly high school. Lowe has assisted Glenn Smith at Pittsfield for the past two years. He succeeds Lyle King who moved back to his home town, Cheonos, to accept a coaching job.

'Sugar' Ray Robinson Wins Decision Over Gavilan In Title Bout

Philadelphia, July 11—(P)—Ray "Sugar" Robinson, a master ring craftsman, outclassed the Cuban challenger, Kid Gavilan, in 15 rounds tonight to retain his world welterweight championship.

Forced into a battle to make the 147-pound weight limit, the tall New York Negro won that weight by the narrowest of margins. Then he called all his experience and boxing skill into play to outpoint the Rumbas dancing Cuban by the proverbial county mile.

Robinson won the unanimous verdict of Referee Charley Dagert and Judges Harry Lasky and Frank Knaresborough.

For the first seven rounds against a younger and finely conditioned opponent, Sugar Ray knew he had been in a fight. Then he stepped out to show he was the boss and he did it so expertly that Knaresborough scored it 12 rounds to three in his favor.

The other officials each awarded Robinson nine rounds and Gavilan six.

Robinson won his real fight when he made the weight limit for the title bout. That had been the big question during the training period—whether Ray could get down to 147 pounds and retain his strength and speed. He made it to the ounce.

Gavilan, who had no weight troubles, came in at 144.

Defending his title for the first time in nearly 13 months and the fourth time since he won recognition as 147 pound boss, Robinson found himself up against a tough, determined but inexperienced opponent.

Gavilan never stopped trying, but after the seventh round that was about all he could do. He never had back away at the same time the way Robinson did. Nor had he faced such a superb defensive boxer who kept picking off the Cuban's best punches with his gloves or catching them on his elbows.

Jackie Robinson Holds 29-Point Lead In NL Batting

New York, July 11—(P)—Jackie Robinson, Brooklyn's brilliant all-star second baseman, continues to add to his National League batting lead with a .362 average.

At the all-star game schedule break, Robinson holds a 29-point lead over Pittsburgh's Ralph Kiner who has taken over the job of chasing the fleet Dodger. Kiner is hitting .333 to 332 for Red Schoendienst of St. Louis, who dropped from second to third.

Willard Marshall of New York also is in "contention" with a .328 mark. So is Brooklyn's Gil Hodges at .323.

Dom DiMaggio And Kell Lead League In AL Batting Race

Chicago, July 11—(P)—As the pick of the major leagues prepared to square off for the All-Star game in Brooklyn, the American league batting race today resolved into a feud between pace-setter George Kell of Detroit and runner-up Dom DiMaggio of Boston.

Only seven points separated Kell, who last week slipped three points to .345, and Ding-Dong, who climbed eight points to .388.

Kell, Tiger third sacker, had 97 hits in 281 trips to the plate through Sunday's games, while outfielder DiMaggio had 102 blows in 302 AB's.

Two other Red Sox stars held third and fourth spots as outfielder Ted Williams advanced seven points to .326 and First Sacker Bill Goodman rated in the top ten for the first time with .323.

Other leaders: Dale Mitchell, Cleveland, .318; Bob Dillinger, St. Louis, .308; Gerry Priddy, St. Louis, .304; Johnny Pesky, Boston, and Roy Sievers, St. Louis, .302 each; and Hank Majeski, Philadelphia, .299.

New York's revived Joe DiMaggio is batting at a .350 clip, but has only 40 AB's for the season and is not included in the official ranking.

In the specialized department, Williams captured the two-bagger lead with a bag of 42, but was supplanted as top man in runs-batted-in by Vern Stephens of Boston, who had 86. Williams and Stephens continued their neck-and-neck race in the home run department with 20 apiece.

Dom DiMaggio took over the pace in hits with 102, while Eddie Joost of Philadelphia maintained the lead in runs, 78, and Mitchell and Dillinger kept ahead in triples and stolen bases respectively with unchanged totals of 11 and nine.

New York's Alie Reynolds added another victory during the week to remain the No. 1 pitcher on a percentage basis, his 9-1 record giving him 900. Virgil (Fire) Trucks of Detroit stayed ahead in strikeouts with 99.

Junior Circuit All-Stars Are Heavy Favorites With DiMag Starting

Brooklyn, July 11—(P)—With the Jolting Joe DiMaggio a surprise starter in center field and Lefty Yank. Henrich, sidelined by a Parnell of Boston doing the pitching, the American league is a solid 5 to 7 favorite to whip the National in tomorrow's 16th all-star game at Ebbets field.

Parnell, stylish ace of Joe McCarthy's off-maligned staff, will draw either Warren Spahn, Boston Braves southpaw, or righthanded George (Red) Mungler of the St. Louis Cards, as his starting foe at 11:30 a.m. (CST). No pitcher, however, can go more than three innings unless it's an over-time game.

Brooklyn, July 11—(P)—Terrible Ted Williams, the Boston Red Sox slugger, became a doubtful starter tonight for tomorrow's 16th annual major league All-Star game.

Doctors found Williams had fractured a rib in a collision with a fence in Yankee Stadium July 4.

Williams did not play in tonight's Red Sox-Braves exhibition at Boston but said he would be on hand for the All-Star classic at Ebbets Field. He added that he did not know if he would play.

American Manager Lou Boudreau said he hadn't heard from Williams but still was counting on using him. If Williams doesn't start, Dale Mitchell of Cleveland probably will.

A crowd of 34,000, lured by the "big names" and drama of the annual prestige battle between the two majors, is expected to jam Ebbets field, host to the all-star game for the first time. Millions more will listen or watch the game by radio and television.

The weatherman promises to cooperate with a forecast of "fair" weather for early afternoon. If it rains, the game will be played Wednesday morning at 9 a.m. (CST).

Chicago 1950 All-Star Site
(Meantime, it was announced in New York today that the 1950 all-star game will be held in Chicago, with the White Sox acting as hosts.

"We have accepted the invitation of the Chicago White Sox to stage the major league all-star game in Comiskey park next summer," was the terse statement made by baseball secretary Walter Mulberry.

(Comiskey park was the site of the first all-star game in 1933.)

Trailing 11-4 in the long series, the National leaguers probably regard the July "dream game" as a nightmare that usually ends the wrong way. If it's not a homer by Babe Ruth, as was the case in the series opener back in 1933, it's one by DiMaggio or Teddy Williams of Boston.

The Americans already scored heavily with the public by naming Joe DiMaggio to the squad. The Yankee Clipper was overlooked in the nationwide voting of some 4,600,000 fans because he missed the first 65 games with a sore heel.

Henrich Is Crippled
Lou Boudreau, American league manager because his Cleveland Indians won the pennant last fall, first picked Joe to the squad and then named him to start in place of the injured Tommy Henrich, another starter in center field and Lefty Yank. Henrich, sidelined by a knee injury, hopes to pinch hit. He's the only crippled regular. To make room for Joe, Brother Dorn of Boston moved over to right field.

Here are the starting lineups as announced by Boudreau and Billy Southworth, the National league manager:

American
D. DiMaggio, Boston (.339) rf
Kell, Detroit (.345) 3b
Williams, Boston (.326) lf
J. DiMaggio, New York (.350) cf
Joost, Philadelphia (.293) ss
E. Robinson, Washington (.297) 1b
Tebbetts, Boston (.315) c
Parnell, Boston (11-5) p
National
Reese, Brooklyn (.306) ss
Robinson, Brooklyn (.362) 2b
Musial, St. Louis (.293) cf
Kiner, Pittsburgh (.333) lf
Mize, New York (.280) 1b
Marshall, New York (.328) rf
Kazak, St. Louis (.302) 3b
Seminick, Philadelphia (.274) c
Spahn, Boston (9-8) or Mungler, St. Louis (6-4) p

Each starter, except the pitchers, must play at least three innings.

Neither manager chose to go beyond his starting choice in pitchers. Southworth, hustling back to Boston for an exhibition between his Boston Braves and the Red Sox, indicated he wouldn't decide between Spahn and Mungler until tomorrow morning.

Receipts, expected to approach $75,000 will go to the player pension fund as in the past several years.

Riley, Potter Share Top Honors In Women's Golf

Champaign, Ill., July 11—(P)—Champaign, Ill., July 11—Tommy Riley, a pert, 18-year-old University of Illinois coed, won the Champaign, and Mrs. C. V. Potter of Medinah, Coddard club, Chicago, today shared medalist honors in the 16th annual Illinois state women's golf championships.

Each carded a two-over-par 78 in the 18-hole trials.

They were one stroke ahead of the popular tournament favorite, Marjorie Lindsay of Decatur, recent runner-up of the trans-Mississippi tournament, and four strokes ahead of Verna Lee Bongart, another Champaign youngster, and Mrs. Clyde Webb, the former Dorothy Foster, of Springfield.

The defending champion, Ruth More of Pekin, had trouble most of the day but wound up with a safe 86. So did some of the other "names" in the meet—such as Virginia Ingram of Chicago, 93; Mrs. H. O. Breaul of Chicago, 86; Mrs. Dwight Annear of Chicago, 87; Mrs. Frank T. Reid, Rockford, 87; Ruth Tenk, Quincy, 90; and Mrs. Dean Arbogast, Normal, and Mrs. Charles Dennehy, Lake Forest, 91's.

Miss Riley and Mrs. Potter each produced one under-par 37's in their medalist rounds. Mrs. Potter, who usually shoots in the high 80s, had seven one-putt greens in the first nine for her 37. Miss Riley, who has been playing in the tournament since she was 13, added a 37 on the back nine to her opening 41.

Major League Ball Pension Plan In Danger Of Folding

New York, July 11—(P)—The major league ball players' pension plan, after two years of operation at ballooning on the new procedure. He a loss, is in imminent danger of folding, it was learned today.

Inaugurated in 1947, the plan thus far has been a financial flop, according to player representatives Fred (Dixie) Walker of Pittsburgh and Fred Hutchinson of Detroit.

"It's no use to kid ourselves," Walker said. "The plan has not panned out as well as we hoped it would. We're just not taking in enough money to meet the cost of operation."

"We went into the hole for $80,000 last year. In other words, we paid out that much more than we took in. And it will get worse as we go along. As I see it, we must take in approximately $200,000 more a year for the next eight years to keep the plan working."

Walker pointed out that last year the players paid in $118,000, and the owners gave as much. That together with proceeds from the All-Star game ($111,000) and world series ($150,000) brought the total income to $497,000. The disbursements were $572,345.

Waitkus Walking In Hospital Room

Chicago, July 11—(P)—Ball player Eddie Waitkus is taking daily walks in his hospital room after an operation Saturday to remove a 22 caliber bullet lodged in his chest. He isn't as yet allowed to see visitors.

Physicians at Billings Memorial hospital say the Philadelphia Phillies first baseman will leave the hospital Saturday or Sunday.

Loop Pavement Begins July 18; Council Says Streets Closed Today

Unanimity marked action of the city council last night as the members passed a group of resolutions, most of which pertained to the new loop improvement project and the proposed causeway at Nichols park.

The group learned that the Sangamo Construction company of Springfield, successful bidders for the loop project, plans to begin work on Monday, July 18.

A resolution ordered all streets connected with the work closed, as of today, to the general public. All persons using the streets involved will do so only at their own risk from today until such time as the city accepts the job from the contractors.

The council also decided to waive permit fees for opening the streets included in the project, providing the work is performed in compliance with, and within the time limits established by the project engineers. The council stipulated, however, that all such work is done at the individuals' expense; only the permit fee is waived.

Council Accepted Plans

The council accepted the plans and specifications of the new causeway over Morgan lake, which had been approved at a prior meeting of the park board. Three galvanized metal tubes, each seven feet in diameter and set at different levels, will connect the two sections of the lake. One tube will be set at the normal water level in order to permit passage of rowboats between the two sections.

The aldermen voted to advertise for bids to be received at a joint meeting of the council and the park board at the city hall at 7:30 p.m. Monday, July 25.

The aldermen also approved

Mayor Hoagland's nomination of the three retiring library board members: Dr. Malcolm Stewart, Harry Oliver and M. M. Blair.

The council gave the green light to the 10th annual Soapbox Derby, which will be held Sunday on Grove street, by sanctioning the closing of the street during the time it takes to build the ramp Saturday until late Sunday afternoon. This action followed a request made by E. D. Blesse and John Zell of the Exchange club.

The sum of $3,000 of motor fuel tax money was ordered paid to the firm of Casler and Stapleton, loop project engineers, as part payment of the project fee.

Engineer Stapleton reported good progress on the plans to improve the East College avenue subway, which floods during hard rains. Current plans call for new inlets to the storm sewer and the pouring of about 60 yards of concrete by city workmen to elevate the roadstand some seven inches. The engineer termed the sewer "good," asserting that the flooding was primarily caused by poor placement of easily clogged inlets.

Disallows Claims

The council disallowed Illinois Bell and the Illinois Telephone company claims amounting to $67.06 for damage accidentally done to a conduit when the sewer department opened Broadway alley between West State and West Court streets last May. The council observed there was no indication of negligence and disclaimed liability.

Another claim, estimated at about $60, was referred to the judiciary committee. It was submitted by E. P. Hohmann, 132 City Place, for damages caused to his automobile when a large tree limb fell on his car on June 28.

Mayor Hoagland called a special meeting of the water and light committees to be held at the city hall at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday night.

LEAVE FOR WASHINGTON, D.C.

Inspection Of Racers Will Begin Wednesday

The Corn Belt Chevrolet garage will be the scene of large scale operations tomorrow night as the Exchange club inspection committee begins the task of scrutinizing the racers.

Chief inspector will be Sid Armstrong, Cecil Ford, Verne Anderson, Perry Roberts, L. L. Omondson, Glenn Spencer, John Zell, and C. H. Muehlhausen. They have announced that all cars must be in for inspection by Thursday evening.

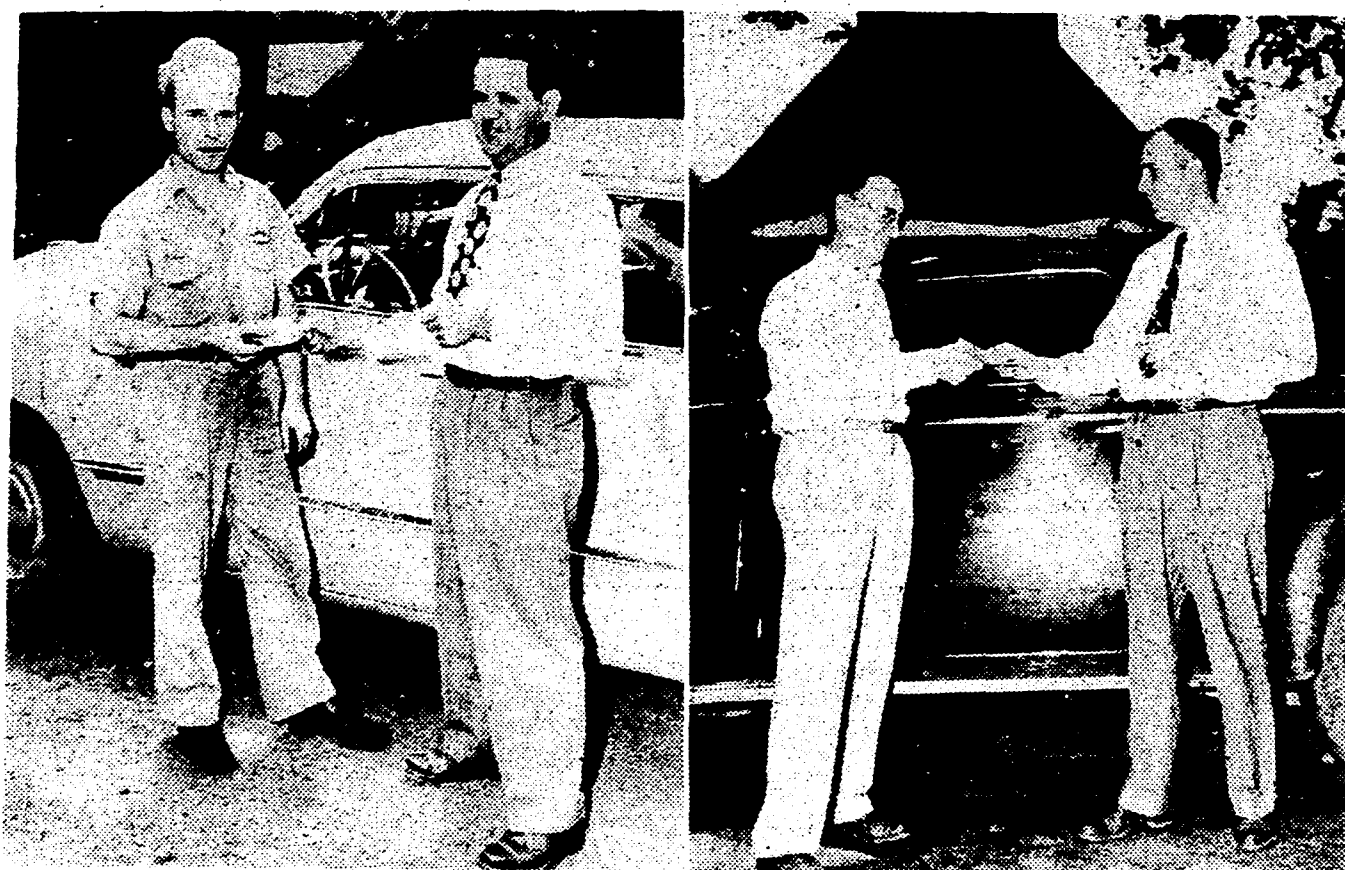

Guidelines for the committee will be the revised 1949 rule book. Each boy who enters the Derby receives one of these books and is fully informed as to construction rules. Particularly important are safety features on the cars.

In order that inspection practices will be the same for every boy, they are standardized throughout the country in every race, and at the Akron finals. Thus each contestant, whether he races in Jacksonville, New York City, or in Los Angeles, will be subjected to the same standards as every other contestant, and the champions from all these cities will meet in the national finals on an equal footing.

"We'll particularly be on the alert to see that every car is boy-built," a committee spokesman said. "This is one rule to which there can be no exception. If there is any suspicion that the boy contestant has had adult help in his car-building, we'll be severe."

This rule is observed at Akron, increase car weight.

COURTEOUS DRIVING HABITS PAY

Wayne Anderson, 223 East Michigan street and Eldon Koehler, 326 East Oak street were Monday's winners of the Courtesy Driving Campaign sponsored by the Chicago Motor club.

The roving committee sighted Anderson as he was leaving the square where he stopped to give an elderly lady the right-of-way. They followed him out South Main where he slowed down for the stop light, which was green, and continued to Morton street where he executed a complete stop. The committee stopped him after he correctly signaled for a left turn onto East Michigan avenue.

Mr. Anderson is the assistant manager for Swift & Company here in Jacksonville. He has been employed by the company for 20 years. Mr. Anderson said he has never been in an accident nor has he ever been arrested for a serious traffic offense. His $5 award is going to be used to feed visiting relatives from Mississippi.

Mr. Koehler attracted the committee's attention when he gave a correct stop signal at the corner of East Pennsylvania street and South Main. The committee followed him toward town until he signaled for a right turn at East Beecher street, he then proceeded to turn left on South Main street and slowed down on College for oncoming traffic. He turned into an alley and drove to the International Harvester garage where the committee presented him his award. The committee remarked that he was the best signaler they had seen all morning.

Mr. Koehler has been employed as a mechanic at the International Harvester garage for three years. He served in the 10th Infantry Division 5 years during the war.

The Courtesy Committee spent an hour trying to find a courteous driver. They said most people think courtesy is unimportant and take it for granted.

The Courtesy Campaign will continue through Thursday.

Lots Of Fish In Arkansas, If You Know Where—Cook

There's good fishing in Arkansas, despite the poor luck experienced by nearly all local anglers who visited that scenic area so far this year, says Bill Cook of the Cook Mattress company. Disturbed by the reports of poor fishing, Mr. Cook has prepared a directive on where to go and how to catch Arkansas. A fly advocate, he has fished in Arkansas for "over a quarter of a century."

His first choice would be, weather and stream conditions being right, Little Rock River, from West Point, (near Searcy) to its outlet into White river a distance by river of possibly 15 to 17 miles. I consider the best portion to be around Nemo Club or Tom Watkins place. Tackle camping equipment and DDT spray. You can probably rent a boat and might be lucky enough to rent the three room cabin at Tom Watkins place. Ask Tom Watkins at the bank in Searcy if the bass are striking. The bass here are all small mouth. Fish large fly with No. 3 or 4 spinner deep and slow.

"If you are a real fisherman and can rough it avoid the large artificial lakes. Some big fish are caught in these lakes, but usually by trolling behind a slow moving motor boat.

"Another good area is the White river lakes in the vicinity of Des-Ark. There are some cabins at Horn Lake, which is ordinarily good bass fishing, both big mouth and small mouth. Spring and Straight Lake are within a mile or two of Horn. Big Clear Lake, Bayou Meto, Bayou Deer, Cash Bayou, Seven Mile and others in a few miles distance of Des-Ark. Papy Daniels can probably tell you where they are biting the best and, if not engaged, will probably paddle the boat for you for about $4 a day.

"Clarendon is the center of another good bass fishing territory. You can stop at the hotel, carry your tackle two blocks cross the levee and rent a boat from a great big silvery haired man in his seventies. Find out if he has a boat off the left bank of the Cache river. If so tie up your boat at the big white oak tree and follow the dim woods road to the lake. If they are hitting you will be repaid for that quarter mile hike. If they are not hitting it's all in a day's fishing.

If there's no boat on the little lake, try seven miles farther up on the left bank of the Cache, it is a stream emptying into Cache. On the right hand bank of the Cache about four or five miles from the mouth, there is a little slough or bay the entrance to which is almost covered by bushes. Work your boat over the logs and brush for 50 yards and it widens out and is possibly a quarter of a mile long. Caught 11 big mouth out of this mud hole between 11:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. last year, biggest weighed over 4 lbs. Because I have been mentioning these special spots don't overlook Cache river itself. When it's right it's as good as there is.

"In the vicinity of Holly Grove, you have East Lake. There are cabins and boats. Try Frank Thomas' place first. If they are not hitting at East Lake go to Ed Jackson's place on Indian Bay, good accommodations, if he is not full up. Meals, boats and everything about $6 per person per day. Have Ed direct you to Moon Lake, fish the narrows from bend to upper end. If you tire of catching bass or if they are not hitting and you are just bound to drown some minnows get some from Ed and fish in the bay in sight of the camp and catch crappie to your hearts content. Size limit 8"; number limit 25, and that's one reason why there is good fishing in Arkansas. A few miles from Ed's place there is Eagles' Nest, also Maddox Bay, where there are accommodations.

"Feel up to floating from daylight until dark? Find out if Cache river is right. If so contact Walter Allsop at Brasfield, Ark., 50 miles south of Little Rock on the Memphis highway. He will put two boats in the river at right spot, meet you at a designated landing at dark with Jeep and trailer and carry you back to Brasfield, fee four people $12. If the river is not right he will also take you and boats to some good inland lake he knows for same fee.

"A pal and myself once floated the Saline river from Cotton Belt bridge, south of Rison, for eight days, sleeping on sandbars at night. This is a wilderness float and not highly recommended for strangers without a native for guide. If you try the Saline camp at the mouth of the Eagles below Hermitage, you can probably rent a boat, and that's all. Fish the three little lake and the Saline river there, small mouth, large mouth, crappie and goggle eye.

"If you just have to try a big artificial lake near Hot Springs go to Dick Farris landing 11 miles out of Hot Springs below the dam on Lake Hamilton. Dick has three cabins in a beautiful pine grove, good food, water, electricity, dishes, wood stove, cooking utensils, etc., beds not the best, but good enough for a tired fisherman. Fly fishing no good. Catch some big ones sometimes on plugs trolled behind slow moving outboard. Crappie yes. Beautiful scenery. There is good fishing on the Ouchita river above Hot Springs. Go to Cedar Glades, rent a boat, go up the river to Smith Chute. No accommodations, but in the wilderness, beautiful scenery and big bass.

"If you don't catch fish at some or all of these places you are no fisherman or it was just the day they didn't choose to bite."

Soapsuds, Will Rogers' Horse, Dies

Santa Monica, Calif., July 11—(P)—Soapsuds, favorite roping horse of the late Will Rogers, died today.

The aging roan—named for the washed-out appearance of his hide—was dispatched by a bullet through the heart, fired by the humorist's son, Jimmy Rogers.

"He must have been somewhere in his thirties—over 100 for a man," said Will Rogers, Jr.

Once a rodeo star, Soapsuds had been ill and suffering. Jimmy Rogers figured it was a merciful thing to do. The horse was buried beside a barn on Rogers' ranch, now a memorial state park.

Committee Head Issues Ten Rules For Water Safety

The current heat wave has attracted an unusual number of persons to central Illinois lakes and swimming pools. To combat the mounting accident rate, Mrs. Philip Bradish, chairman of the water safety committee for the local Red Cross chapter has issued the following 10 rules:

Pick a sanitary place to swim, one free from such hazards as holes or jetties or submerged objects; swim where trained lifeguards with rescue equipment are on duty; prepare for a day at the beach by bringing and using sung glasses, beach shoes and lotion, and cover up against sunburn or cold; and don't swim when overheated, during thunderstorms or right after eating.

Test your skill and endurance by swimming near and parallel to the shore, not straight out; determine the depth of the water and the presence of obstructions before diving; help the lifeguard by not distracting him or violating regulations; don't show off or try dangerous feats; swim with somebody else who can help in case of trouble; and leave the water as soon as you are tired or cold.

24 Persons Injured As Car Careens Into Rear Of Truck Sunday

Twenty-four persons were injured, seven seriously, when a car rammed into the rear of a truck carrying a load of young people bound for a Baptist youth rally at Virginia.

The accident occurred Sunday at 12:45 p. m. one mile north of Manchester on Route 67, when a tie rod on the 1935 Ford sedan, driven by Walter Oliver of Roodhouse, broke, causing him to lose control of the car and careen into the rear of a 1947 Chevrolet truck, carrying more than 20 persons.

The truck was being driven by Ralph Coats of White Hall. Coats told authorities that he saw the oncoming car and swerved to avoid being hit. Because of a ditch at the side of the road, he was able to pull over only a short distance. He said that he thought the car had passed safely, until a moment later, when he felt the impact of the collision.

In the car with Oliver were his two brothers, Ray, owner of the car, and Aaron, and Donna Sue Long. All are from Roodhouse. The driver suffered a fractured hand. The others sustained minor injuries.

Passengers Thrown From Truck

The truck was struck with such force that the passengers riding on the back were thrown from the truck bed, landing on various spots across the highway.

Passing motorists took the 24 victims to the White Hall hospital, where they were given emergency treatment by Dr. Walker of Roodhouse.

Only one of the injured remained at the hospital in White Hall, while three others were brought to Our Saviour's hospital and two were taken to Carrollton.

At Our Saviour's hospital are Mrs. Norman Ward, suffering from head injuries and contusions; Miss Pauline Malin, who sustained a fractured jaw and other injuries; and Miss Jacqueline Young, 12, who suffered a head injury. Their conditions, though serious, are not believed critical.

Boy At Carrollton

Everett Willis, who suffered severe injuries to his head and chest, is at the Boyd Memorial hospital in Carrollton. He is reported to be getting along satisfactorily. Mrs. Earl Kesinger was given treatment at the Carrollton hospital and dismissed.

Mrs. Louise Young, who remained at the White Hall hospital, is suffering from a badly sprained back. Her condition is said to be satisfactory.
